

AMELIA ISLAND SUMMIT - RECOMMENDED RESTAURANTS 2017

Bob's Steak & Chop House

Bob's offers top quality prime cuts of beef—including the sought-after prime filet—all sourced from Chicago-based meat purveyor Stock Yards. Bob's beef is hand selected from the top 2%, trimmed and expertly grilled. Bob's selection of house-made sides, starters and desserts are equally as impressive, from the famous pickles and warm loaves of bread, to the skillet fries and everything in between. Known for its large cuts of meat and seafood, oversized drinks, and the signature carrot, Dallas-born Bob's maintains the Texas adage, "where everything is bigger." Vegetarian and Gluten-free options available.

Phone: 904-277-2132

Website: <http://bobs-steakandchop.com/amelia-island/>

Eat And Drink South Island $$$$: $30 pp and up

Falcon's Nest - Omni Amelia Island Plantation Resort

Nestled amongst the majestic live oaks at the Omni Amelia Island Plantation next to The Spa and Heron's Cove Adventure Golf, this family friendly restaurant and nightspot serves as a celebration of civil and military aviation. With 7,000 square feet of fascinating aviation memorabilia, pool tables, HDTV's, NFL Sunday Ticket, dining and lounge seating, Falcon's Nest is the perfect place to "fly by"! Meet with family for a delicious pub-style menu including our infamous hamburgers and Build-A-Burger menu or gather with friends to catch the game and the best daily happy hour in town from 4pm-7pm. Falcon's Nest serves vegetarian options and is open to the public and resort guests.

Phone: 904-491-5166

Website: <https://www.omnihotels.com/hotels/amelia-island-plantation/dining/falcons-nest-bar>

Eat and Drink South Island $: Up to $15 pp

Salt

The Salt dining experience features simple ingredients from the earth and sea, properly seasoned, artfully prepared and served in a contemporary coastal setting. Winner of the prestigious AAA Five Diamond Award, serving fresh fish, aged steaks and unique culinary creations. Complimentary valet parking. Specialties include Signature "Steak & Eggs" served on a sizzling 250 million-year-old Himalayan salt block is a special treat that shows the passion and creativity in Chef Laughlin's kitchen. The 'Dine with the Chefs' experience offers a unique, private seat in the kitchen where guests enjoy a customized menu and optional wine pairings. Vegetarian and Gluten free options available

Phone: 904-277-1087

Website: <http://www.ritzcarlton.com/en/hotels/florida/amelia-island/dining/salt>

Eat And Drink South Island $$$$: $30 pp and up

Joe's 2nd Street Bistro

A cozy sophisticated blend of culinary experiences from Joe's intimate dining rooms to the New Orleans inspired courtyard. Offering a diverse "from scratch" menu featuring creative specials and local seafood. Great for private functions (private room available.) Located in historic downtown Fernandina Beach, one-half block from Centre Street. Liquor and extensive wine list available.

Phone: 904-321-2558

Website: <http://www.joesbistro.com/>

Eat and Drink Historic District $$: $15-20 pp

Ciao Italian Bistro

Luca and Kim Misciasci, owners of Ciao Italian Bistro, and their family, welcome you and your family and friends to dine with them. Located in the historic district, Ciao incorporates traditional and contemporary Italian fare, always with the freshest and finest ingredients.

Website: <http://www.ciaobistro-luca.com/>

Phone: 904-206-4311

Eat and Drink Historic District $$$: $20-30 pp

More on Back of Page

Verandah Seafood Restaurant

Overlooking the tranquil Racquet Park tennis facility, diners view the natural canopy of live oak trees from the Verandah restaurant, specializing in southern inspired fare and fresh traditional seafood. Bringing the bounty of the local Atlantic Ocean and neighboring farmers to plates, the Verandah features an array of the area's freshest seafood in an inviting, family-friendly setting. Open daily to the public as well as resort guests.

Phone: 904-321-5050

Website: <http://www.omnihotels.com/findahotel/ameliaisland/dining/theverandah.aspx>

Eat And Drink South Island $$$: $20-30 pp

Le Clos

Located in the Historic District, Le Clos serves delicious French dishes by candlelight in a quaint 1906 cottage. The food is impeccably prepared and presented. Offers an extensive wine list. Chef/Owner Katherine Ewing received full degrees in both cuisine and pastry from Le Cordon Bleu and L'Ecole de Gastronomie Francaise Ritz-Escoffier, Paris, and trained at the Ritz Hotel, Paris, France. Specialties: Steak au Poivre, escargot, duck, local shrimp

Phone: 904-261-8100

Website: <http://www.leclos.com/>

Eat and Drink Historic District $$: $15-20 pp

Espana Restaurant and Tapas

España Restaurant & Tapas has been named in 2015 one of the Top 15 Tapas Restaurants in the US by Niumba de TripAdvisor. Specializing in traditional flavors from Spain and Portugal. Featuring just-caught local seafood, an array of hot and cold tapas and the traditional paella. The always homemade sangria, bread, and desserts are from family recipes. Varied beer and wine list available. Showcasing nightly specials. Choose to dine in the cozy main dining room or enclosed patio overlooking the garden.

Phone: 904-261-7700

Website: <http://www.espanadowntown.com/>

Eat And Drink Historic District $$: $15-20 pp

29 South: A chic neighborhood bistro with a little something for everyone...

Located in the Historic District: Classic world cuisine with a modern twist prepared with ingredients sourced from local farms and onsite garden. Signature items include Lobster Corn Dogs with Spicy Horseradish Ketchup spiked with Kettle One Vodka, Sweet Tea Brined DelKat Family Farm Pork Chop on Macaroni Gratin with Warm Blackberry Preserves, and Grilled Heart of Romaine Salad with Maytag Blue Vinaigrette with Our Own House Cured Applewood Bacon and Toasted Walnuts.

For those with a sweet tooth save room for our Coffee and Doughnuts, glazed doughnut bread pudding with butterscotch drizzle and mocha ice cream.

Phone: 904.277.7919 $$: $18-30 pp

Address: 29 south 3rd Street, Fernandina Beach FL, 32034

Website: www.29SouthRestaurant.com

(Note: all information acquired from <http://www.ameliaisland.com/Dining>. There are many more great dining options available in Ferandina. Please call individual restaurant for hours and availability)